Exploring the development of educational provision and contemporary issues, this book covers the countries that made up the European Union from its foundation to the signing of the Treaty of Nice: Austria, Belgium, Denmark, Finland, France, Germany, Greece, Ireland, Italy, Luxembourg, Portugal, Spain, Sweden and The Netherlands. The chapters, written by regional experts, offer a review of contemporary national and regional educational structures and policies, research innovation and trends, as well as covering selected issues and problems including the effects of educational reform and systemic changes within the school and university systems, minority languages, and intercultural changes for indigenous and new immigrant populations. What do school history textbooks mean in the contemporary world? What issues and debates surround their history and production, their distribution and use across cultures? This volume brings together articles by authors from the United States, Italy, Japan, Germany, France, Russia and England, each piece drawing attention to a series of fascinating yet highly specific national debates. In this collection, perspectives on the place and purpose of school history textbooks are shown to differ across space and time. For the student or scholar of comparative education this compilation raises important methodological questions concerning the grounds and parameters upon which it is possible to make comparisons. Describes the history and nature of the Italian Race Laws during the period (1938-43) when Italy was independent of German control. In Kenny Wright's active imagination he's a world famous superhero, but in the real world he's a sixth grade "Grandma's Boy" whose struggles to fit in at his Washington D.C. inner city school will put his grades and family loyalty to the test Schooling in Europe is being transformed by a new policy orthodoxy affecting all aspects of the school. Privatization, decentralization, and business focused curriculum reform are all on the rise. The authors consider the impact and conflict of such changes on schooling in England, France, Germany, Italy and Spain. This book examines comparatively how the writing of history by individuals and groups, historians, politicians and journalists has been used to "legitimate" the nation-state against socialist, communist and catholic internationalism in the modern era. Covering the whole of Western Europe, the book includes discussion of: * history as legitimation in post-revolutionary France * unity and confederation in the Italian Risorgimento * German historians as critics of Prussian conservatism * right-wing history writing in France between the wars * British historiography from Macauley to Trevelyan * the search for national identity in the reunified Germany. Piero Gobetti's New World is both an introduction to Gobetti's thought and an in-depth study of the three main questions on which his writings focus: the relationship between Italian history and fascism, the nature of a genuine antifascist political culture, and the crisis of Italian liberalism in his day. Pensato per tutti gli alunni per integrare i materiali dei libri di testo in adozione, ma anche per il recupero e il sostegno degli alunni con difficoltà, questo volume segue il curricolo ministeriale di storia della classe seconda della scuola secondaria di primo grado. Per ogni argomento (dalle grandi scoperte geografiche alla fine dell'800) presenta: - testi sintetici e semplificati, - linee del tempo, - mappe delle informazioni e riassuntive, - concetti chiave, - verifiche, - tabelle di ripasso, - proposte di lettura - spunti per attività di ricerca. I contenuti sono particolarmente adatti anche per il ripasso durante le vacanze o negli anni successivi. In allegato gli stickers colorati e un cartellone con la linea del tempo da costruire e appendere in classe. La proposta operativa è inoltre arricchita di risorse aggiuntive disponibili online. Fate un passo avanti, e osservate me, Jamie Grimm, farmi strada a colpi di risate attraverso le montagne russe chiamate SCUOLA MEDIA. Ammirate la mia scalata, a furia di barzellette, verso la vetta del concorso per il Giovane Comico Più Divertente del Pianeta! Sbalordite mentre mi schermisco dalle attenzioni di migliaia di affascinanti fanciulle! O qualcosa del genere, insomma... La gente sostiene che io sia abbastanza fantastico, a volte. Ma quando il gioco si fa davvero duro, allora posso diventare addirittura SUPERFANTASTICO! The Leamington Italian Community intertwines personal and family stories with both empirical and intuitive writing to offer new historical insights into the complex social, economic, and psychological causes and effects of the migration phenomenon. Walter Temelini meticulously reconstructs the history of immigration and settlement in Leamington, Ontario, of Italians from the southern regions of Lazio, Molise, and Sicily. He explains how, despite their regional differences, three generations between 1925 and the 1990s forged a cohesive, socially conscious, and unique agricultural community by balancing their inherited values and their newly adopted Canadian economic opportunities. Temelini's groundbreaking research draws on testimonial and documentary evidence gathered from in-depth interviews with hundreds of residents, as well as on original archival information and Italian-language histories translated by the author and previously unavailable to English-speaking readers. He concludes his study with an investigation into the award-winning novel Lives of the Saints by Nino Ricci, one of the community's most celebrated descendants. Drawing parallels between Ricci's narrative and the development of the community, Temelini demonstrates that ethnicity can be transformed successfully into a powerful universal archetype, and a creative force of identity. A pioneering and authoritative work, The Leamington Italian Community creates an intimate portrait within a global framework, delving into issues both timely and timeless, that will interest and inform the general and specialized reader alike. First published in 1992. This volume includes reports, papers and discussion from a September 1990 educational research workshop on textbook analysis in history and social studies. Some 20 European countries are represented. Chiara Bottici and Benoît Challand explore the formative process of a European identity situated between myth and memory.
