Sun & Spoon Mar 11 2021 It had been only two months since Spoon Gilmore's grandmother died, but already he worried that he would forget her. That's why he needed something of Gram's - something special that had belonged to something to remember her by. Spoon wasn't quite sure what the something was, though he knew he would know if he saw it. But Spoon's little sister, Joanie, did not leave him much time to look. She was always following him, demanding attention. Spoon didn't have the time he needed to think, or perhaps he wouldn't have done what he did. 02 Nutcracker Children's Book Award Masterlist and 00-01 Young Reader's Choice Award Program Masterlist

Penny and Her Sled Oct 06 2020 "A gentle story of patience."—Horn Book (starred review) Caldecott Medal-winner Kevin Henkes's award-winning and bestselling mouse, Penny, stars in an irresistible story about anticipation, disappointment, and a brand-new sled. Told in five short chapters, Penny and Her Sled is perfect for reading alone, reading aloud, and reading together. When Penny, a sweet and curious mouse, gets a new sled, she can't wait to use it. But there's one big problem—there's no snow! Patiently, Penny waits and watches for the snow to appear. She puts on her scarf and mittens and sleeps with her mittens. Maybe if she's ready, the snow will finally come. But day after day, the snow does not appear. Finally, Penny decides she will use her sled for other things—it's too wonderful not to! With a little imagination, Penny becomes a bridge for her glass animals to cross. It becomes a bed for her doll, Rose. It becomes a magic carpet for Penny and Rose on adventures all around the world. And as Penny waits for a snowfall that may never appear, she learns about the power of patience, imagination, play . . . and spring! Told in five short chapters, and with an emphasis on patience, Penny and Her Sled is the perfect choice for emergent readers and for family sharing.

Lilly's purple plastic purse Feb 21 2022 Lilly loves everything about school, especially her teacher, but when he asks her to wait a while before showing her new purse, she does something for which she is very sorry later.

Rain Makes Applesauce (Restored Edition) Feb 28 2020 Featuring a new introduction by Caldecott Medalist Jerry Pinkney, this much-beloved classic has been carefully restored for a new generation. One of TIME's 100 Best Children's Books of All Time! My House goes walking every day... and rain makes applesauce. Oh, you're just talking silly talk! So begins this award-winning collection of nonsense verse and images. A story-hour favorite since it was first published in 1964, this classic read-aloud has been carefully remastered to bring back the rich, vivid details of its Caldecott Honor-winning artwork. With a new introduction by Caldecott Medalist Jerry Pinkney, Rain Makes Applesauce is popular both as a bedtime story and as a title for elementary teachers of creative writing. Created by the unique team of legendary NASA publicist Julia Fierstein and illustration master Marvin Bileck, this influential picture book has inspired artists and writers, as well as young children creating their own nonsense stories, for more than 50 years.

My Garden Jul 15 2021 The girl in this book grows chocolate rabbits, tomatoes as big as beach balls, flowers that change color, and seashells in her garden. How does your garden grow?

Lilly's Purple Plastic Purse Mar 23 2022 Lilly loves everything about school, especially her teacher, but when he asks her to wait a while before showing her new purse, she does something for which she is very sorry later.

Fred Stays With Me Feb 19 2022 Told from the point of view of a young child whose parents are divorced, Fred Stays With Me follows a girl and her dog, Fred, from one parent's house to the other's, giving her a sense of continuity and stability. With a simple text and childlike language, the story expresses and addresses a child's concerns, highlights the friendship between child and pet, presents a common ground for the parents, and resolves conflict in a positive way. Tricia Spratt's charming and whimsical artwork adds a light, happy feel to this poignant--but not overly sentimental--story.

Owen Oct 18 2021 Owen had a fuzzy yellow blanket. "Fuzzy goes where I go," said Owen. But Mrs. Tweezers didn't think so. She thought Owen was too old for a blanket. Owen disagreed. No matter what Mrs. Tweezers came up with, Blanket, ketchup, or vinegar, Owen had the answer. But when school started, Owen's mother knew just what to do, and everyone -- including Owen -- was happy.

Jessica Jul 27 2022 "There is no Jessica," said Ruthie's parents. But of course there was. She ate with Ruthie, played with Ruthie, and was sorry when Ruthie was bad. Nobody could see Jessica -- except Ruthie. When it came time for Ruthie to go to school, Jessica went with her. Her parents hoped Ruthie would find a friend at school who would replace Jessica. But Ruthie brought Jessica in for a (happy) surprise!

All Alone Nov 18 2021 When you are alone, you can do all sorts of things -- pretend you are tiny (or enormous), talk to yourself, and see things other people can't see. Being alone is fine -- sometimes. Kevin Henke's first book is a clear reminder that he remembers his own childhood and respects that time in others. His remarkable paintings have a lifelike luminescence that are unforgettable.

One Plastic Bag Jan 09 2021 Audisee® eBooks with Audio combine professional narration and text highlighting for an enhanced reading experience.

engaging read aloud experience! The inspiring true story of how one African woman began a movement to recycle plastic bags that were polluting her community. Plastic bags are cheap and easy to use. But what happens when a bag is no longer needed? In Njau, Gambia, people simply dropped the bags and went on their way. One plastic bag became two. Then ten. Then a hundred. The bags accumulated in ugly heaps alongside roads. Water pooled in them, bringing mosquitoes and disease. Some bags were burned, leaving behind a terrible smell. Some were buried, but they strangled garden plants and killed livestock that tried to eat them. Something had to change. Isatou Ceesay was that change. She found a way to reuse the bags and transform her community. This inspirational true story shows how one person's actions really can make a difference in our world.

The Food Lab: Better Home Cooking Through Science Feb 07 2021 A New York Times Bestseller Winner of the James Beard Award for General Cooking and the IACP Cookbook of the Year Award "The one book you must have, no matter what you're planning to cook or where your skill level falls."—New York Times Book Review Ever wondered how to pan-fry a steak with a charred crust and an interior that's perfectly medium-rare from edge to edge when you cut into it? How to make a homemade mac 'n' cheese that is as satisfyingly gooey and velvety-smooth as the blue box stuff, but far tastier? How to roast a succulent, moist turkey (forget about brining!)—and use a foolproof method that works every time? As Serious Eats' resident culinary nerd-in-residence, J. Kenji López-Alt has pondered all these questions and more. In The Food Lab, Kenji explains the science behind beloved American dishes, delving into the interactions between heat, energy, and molecules to show you how to make the great food. Kenji shows that often, conventional methods don't work that well, and home cooks can achieve far better results using new—but simple—techniques. In hundreds of easy-to-make recipes with over 1,000 full-color images, you'll learn how to make foolproof Hollandaise sauce in just two minutes, how to transform one simple tomato sauce into a dozen dishes, how to make the crispiest, creamiest potato casserole ever conceived, and much more.

Little Penguin Mar 30 2020 Newbery Medal-winning author Cynthia Rylant and Caldecott Honor-winning, best-selling illustrator Christian Robinson pair up to tell this wintry story about five little penguins enjoying a snowy day. Snow. Many snowflakes. Winter is coming. So begins this ever-so-simple story. As the snow starts to fall, the excited penguins put out scarves, mittens, heavy socks, and boots, and Mama helps them bundle up. But when it's time to go out, one penguin decides to stay home. Filled with waddling baby penguins, playful text, and delightful illustrations, this book is like a young picture-book classic in the making. "Visually stunning. . . . Pair with Ezra Jack Keats's classic The Snow Day." —Booklist, Starred "An excellent tale for the very young. A very warm and satisfying bedtime book and a paean to winter and winter delights." —Kirkus Reviews Winner of the National Parenting Product Award A School Library Journal Best Book of the Year

Penny and Her Marble Aug 04 2020 Caldecott Medalist Kevin Henkes's award-winning Penny returns in the third I Can Read story about a sweet and curious mouse, perfect for fans of Lilly's Purple Plastic Purse, Owen, and Chrysanthemum. When Penny spots a marble in Mrs. Goodwin's front yard, she picks it up, puts it in her pocket, and takes it home. It's a beautiful marble—it's big, shiny, blue, smooth, and fast, and Penny loves it. But does the marble really belong to Penny? Penny and Her Marble was named a 2014 Geisel Honor book by the American Library Association. This annual award is given to the most distinguished books for beginning readers, is named for the world-renowned children's author Theodor Geisel, also known as Dr. Seuss. Kevin Henkes is a master at creating beautifully illustrated books that resonate with children. The Penny books are new classics for beginning readers and will appeal to fans of Frog and Toad, Little Henry and Mudge. Penny and Her Marble is a Level One I Can Read book, which means it's perfect for children learning to sound out words and sentences. Whether shared at home or in a classroom, the short sentences, familiar words, and simple concepts of Level One books support success for children eager to start reading on their own. Don't miss Penny's adventures in Penny and Her Sled!

The Year of Billy Miller Dec 08 2020 Newbery Honor Book and New York Times Bestseller! Award-winning, national bestselling author Kevin Henkes introduces second-grader Billy Miller in this fast-paced and funny story about sibling rivalry, and elementary school. The Year of Billy Miller includes black-and-white art by Kevin Henkes and is perfect for fans of the Ramona books; Frindle, by Andrew Clements; and the Clementine series. The New York Times declared "Henkes's delightful story is restrained and vivid . . . forgoing the overdramatic or zany, it shows the substance and adaptability of beautifully common family love." When Billy Miller has a mishap at the statue of the Jolly Green Giant at the end of summer vacation, he ends up with a big lump on his head. What a way to start second grade! As the year goes on, though, Billy figures out how to navigate elementary school, how to appreciate his little sister, and how to be a grown-up and responsible member of the family and a help to his busy working mom and stay-at-home dad. Newbery Honor Book and Caldecott Medalist Kevin Henkes delivers a short, satisfying, laugh-out-loud-funny school and family story through a diorama homework assignment, a school poetry slam, cancelled sleepovers, and epic sibling temper tantrums. The Year of Billy Miller is a perfect short novel for the early elementary grades. Plus don't miss the follow-up, Billy Miller Makes a Wish!

Sheila Rae, the Brave Oct 30 2022 Sheila Rae, the Brave is a warm, humorous, and loving story of sibling sympathy and support. Just because Sheila Rae is older, she doesn't always know better! This classic picture book about overcoming fear was written and illustrated by Kevin Henkes, the nationally bestselling and celebrated creator of Lilly's Purple Plastic Purse, Owen, and Kitten's First Full Moon. "I am very brave," Sheila Rae said, patting herself on the back. She wasn't afraid of anything—not thunder, not lightning, not the big black dog at the end of the block. And when she wanted to walk alone, she and Louise wouldn't, she called her sister a scaredy-cat and set out alone. But all the bravado in the world couldn't help when Sheila Rae found herself lost. Luckily, her sister was not far behind. "Children will love it."—School Library Journal

Readers of all ages will vividly remember trying to peek at hidden gift packages; writing scrolls of wishes for Santa; and struggling to behave at formal Christmas dinner parties. Always in the background, we know Santa Claus is watching, soon to decide if David deserves a shiny new fire truck or a lump of coal under the tree. From playing with ornaments to standing in an endlessly long line for Santa, here are common Christmas activities--but with David's misadventures and trimmings. A surefire hit that is destined to be an annual classic.

Bird Lake Mood Dec 20 2021 Told in alternating voices, this smart and engaging middle grade novel from the beloved author Kevin Henkes is the story of two boys coming together in friendship as they struggle with family conflicts and tragic events. Mitch and Spencer are ghosts at Bird Lake, and they're haunting Mitch and Spencer. Not the Halloween kind, but ghosts of the past. Mitch and Spencer are how life was before—before the divorce, before the accident. Can their ghosts bring Mitch and Spencer together? Or will their secrets keep them apart? Mitch feels isolated at his grandparents' house and can't help hating his grandfather who walked out on him and his mom two and a half weeks earlier. Spencer's family has decided it's finally time to return to Bird Lake, years after his brother, Matty, drowned there. Both boys arrive at the lake scarred and fragile, but as they become friends, the sharp edges of their lives smooth out and, slowly, they are able to start healing. "Superbly crafted. A must-read for every library." —School Library Journal (starred review) "In a novel as tender as his acclaimed Olive's Ocean, Henkes probes the psyches of two boys facing family conflicts."—Publishers Weekly (starred review)

Everyone Can Learn to Ride a Bicycle Oct 01 2020 "[Raschka's] marvelous sequences, fluid style, and emotional intelligence capture all of the momentum and exhilaration of this glorious accomplishment," raves School Library Journal in a starred review. Learning to ride a bike is one of the most important milestones of childhood, and no one captures the emotional ups and downs of the experience better than Chris Raschka, who won the 2012 Caldecott Medal for Daisy. In this simple yet emotionally rich "guide," a father takes his daughter through all the steps in the process, from choosing the perfect bicycle to that triumphant first successful ride. Using very few words and lots of expressive illustrations, here is a picture book that not only shows kids how to learn to ride, but captures what it feels like to fall . . . get up . . . again . . . and finally "by luck, grace, and determination" ride a bicycle!

Billy Miller Makes a Wish Sep 16 2021 "Full of heart and depth."—Kirkus Reviews (starred review) "Henkes is a master of characterization. —The Horn Book (starred review) "A first-rate choice for reading aloud."—Booklist (starred review) Billy Miller is back!
