When forensic anthropologist Elizabeth MacPherson becomes the official P.I. for her brother Bill's fledgling Virginia law firm, she quickly takes on two complex cases. Eleanor Royden, a perfect lawyer's wife for twenty years, has shot her ex-husband and his wife in cold blood. And Donna Jean Morgan is implicated in the death of her Bible-thumping bigamist husband. Bill's feminist firebrand partner, A. P. Hill, does her damndest for Eleanor, an abused wife in denial, and Bill gallantly defends Donna Jean. Meanwhile, Elizabeth's forensic expertise, including her special knowledge of poisons, gives her the most challenging case of her career. . . . Kerri Dalee didn't grow up in a religious family. In fact, the last time Kerri went to church, she only attended for the cool door prizes and food served at Vacation Bible School. But when her wealthy roommate, Stephanie, gets engaged, Kerri's finds that her only hope for financial survival is an editing job at a Dallas area mega-church. While waiting for her interview, Kerri makes a quick, desperate decision to meet Christ - in the ladies' room, of all places - so she can fulfill every aspect of the stated criteria for employment. But can she fake her faith long enough to make it through the 90-day probationary period? How will her family respond? And, more importantly, will Kerri get more than she bargained for at this new job? I Met Him in the Ladies' Room is a fun, faith-filled novella that revisits the foundations of Christianity with humorous, light-hearted wisdom and wit. 34 This is the book you've been waiting for! Picking up where bestselling 90 Minutes in Heaven left off, Don Piper reveals for the first time the sacred, intimate details of the people who met him at the gates of heaven and the profound impact they had on his faith on earth. In this incredible follow-up to his eight-million-copy bestseller, 90 Minutes in Heaven, Don Piper shares untold stories about his encounters with people who greeted him at the gates of heaven, and offers powerful insights about the way for us to live our lives on earth. Don Piper's unforgettable account of a horrific car accident that took his life, and what happened next has riveted more than eight million readers. Something happened as he shared his story in the years since. Not only did Piper realize he had more to tell, he had yet to share the most sacred and intimate details of his time in heaven about the people who met him at the gates. "I have never left a speaking engagement without people wanting to know more," he said in THE PEOPLE I MET IN HEAVEN, Piper takes readers deeper into his experience, which includes never-before-told encounters with the people who met him when he arrived in heaven-those who helped him on his journey that led to the entrance to God's heavenly home. Even more, Piper recounts the majesty of heaven and the glorious reunion that awaits us there. He offers practical insights, inspiration, and a challenging call that while we're on earth we need to obey Jesus' command to "go and make disciples of all nations." I Met Someone is the story of Academy Award-winning actress Dusty Wilding, her wife Allegra, a long-lost daughter, and the unspeakable secret hidden beneath the glamour of their lavish, carefully calibrated celebrity life. After Allegra suffers a miscarriage, Dusty embarks on a search for the daughter she lost at age sixteen, and uncovers the answer to a question that has haunted her for decades. With masterful suspense, Bruce Wagner moves among the perspectives of his characters, revealing their individual trauma and the uncanny connections to one another's past lives. I Met Someone plummets the reader down a rabbit hole of the human psyche, with Wagner's remarkable insights into our collective obsession with great wealth and fame, and surprises with unimaginable plot turns and unexpected fate. Alternately tender, shocking, and poetic, this is Wagner's most captivating and affecting novel yet. Ashley is a shy girl who keeps to herself, with a bad past all she wants right now is to focus on her future. What happens when she meets Jake who is the exact opposite of her? Will she open her heart to him? Will she be able to deny the attraction between them? Join them in their journey of love and drama! Kresley Studying abroad was my chance to gain independence away from my privileged life in California. But, when there's a kidnapping attempt on my life, I'm forced to return home to finish college. I just never expected to get stuck with a pompous, know-it-all bodyguard who watches my every move with nothing but disdain. One whose good looks don't soften the cold, impenetrable wall he wears like armor. Tristan I pride myself on being a professional and taking my job as a bodyguard seriously. But, nothing could prepare me for the high maintenance, rich girl I'm hired to protect. She's got a smart mouth, is hell-bent on pushing my buttons, and doesn't take the threats against her seriously. And despite the nightmares that plague her dreams, or the fact that I'm the only one who knows about them, I'm not there to befriend her. I'm there to protect her...no matter how much she intrigues me. Jabs will be exchanged, glares will become the norm, jealousy will rear its ugly head, and sparks...well those damn things will inevitably fly. But will it all come with a dangerous price? A history of our time. A woman lures predators into a deadly trap in this "stunning" novel of victim turned vigilante (Book Reader Magazine). When Rebecca's childhood abuser avoids prosecution, it sets her on a path to revenge and soon she is handing out retribution on any man who preys on the innocent. Twenty-three-year-old Rebecca poses as a child online and sets her trap, luring one sex offender after another to their deaths. Her thirst for revenge began when her childhood abuser succeeded in avoiding prosecution—and now she is handing out retribution on any man who preys on the innocent. When a severed head is found washed up on a windswept estuary beach, DI Gravel and his team are called in to investigate. In what might be his toughest case yet, DI Gravel finds himself asking if vigilante justice is ever justified . . . Previously published under the title A Mind to Kill, Before I Met Him is part of the DI Gravel series, though it can easily be read as a stand-alone novel. One night, when Ethan reaches under his bed for a toy truck, he finds this note instead: "Monsters! Meet here for final test." Ethan is sure his parents are trying to trick him into staying under the covers, until he sees five colorful sets of eyes blinking at him from beneath the bed. Soon, a colorful parade of quirky, squeaky little monsters compete to become Ethan's monster. But only the little green monster, Gabe, has the perfect blend of stomach-rumbling and snorting needed to get Ethan into bed and keep him there so he falls asleep—which as everyone knows, is the real reason for monsters under beds. With its perfect balance of giggles and shivers, this silly-spooky prequel to the award-winning I Need My Monster and Hey, That's MY Monster! will keep young readers entertained. This journal is perfect for you to write on your to-do list, motivations and daily goals. The bestselling, Booker Prize-winning author of The Sense of an Ending delivers “a remarkably original and subtle book” (The New York Review of Books) about the nature of love and jealousy. At the start of this fiendishly comic and suspenseful novel, a mild-mannered English academic chuckles as he watches his wife commit adultery. The action takes place before she met him. But lines between film and reality, past and present become terrifyingly blurred in this sad and funny tour de force from the author of Flaubert's Parrot. Kia moves to Seris an unfamiliar environment only to fall in love with Marron a Zoray who has supernatural powers. Marron tries his best to keep her away from tragic secrets but will it happen.. 99 “When life gives you lemons, make lemonade” is what the author Juhi Jaisinghani believes in. When everybody is talking about the uncertainties happening during the lockdown 2020, she tries to show you another side of it. A software engineer losing his job with no clue about his passion, a couple trying to revamp their almost broken marriage, a police officer on the verge of forgetting his old dream, a girl cheated on by the love of her life still looking out for love, a couple about to get married with everything planned, an orphan guy desiring solace, a girl waiting for her childhood sweetheart, a high-profile journalist considering love for granted, an airhostess in hope of the biggest opportunity of her life, a struggling actor almost always making the wrong choices and regretting about it—life indeed gave them lemons they would be able to make lemonade of, or they would give up against time. One woman takes us on a journey of self-realization through ten conversational narratives about her relationships with ten different men. Every reader will recognize at least one if not all of the men in the narratives. Angel Charmaine demonstrates once again that one woman's story is many women's stories. This volume contains contributions on recent results in infinite dimensional harmonic analysis and its applications to probability theory. Some papers deal with purely analytic topics such as Frobenius reciprocity, diffeomorphism groups, equivariant fibrations and Harish-Chandra modules. Several other papers touch upon stochastic processes, in particular Lévy processes. The majority of the contributions emphasize on the algebraic-topological aspects of the theory by choosing configuration spaces, locally compact groups and hypergroups as their basic structures. The volume provides a useful survey of innovative work pertaining to a highly actual section of modern analysis in its pure and applied shapings. Set in the future when "firemen" burn books forbidden by the totalitarian "brave new world" regime. Catalog of an exhibition held at the Metropolitan Museum of Art, New York, April 5-July 4, 2011. From New York Times Bestselling Author, S. L. Scott, comes this new standalone. Their love burned bright, white hot, and strikingly blue around the edges. Some thought them careless. Some thought them crazy. No one approved. Taylor Barrett was looking for answers in a universe that had abandoned him. Jude Boehler flooded her dark world with charisma and mystery, drawing everyone into her hurricane. It was a most captivating of love affairs. They were shooting stars, meteors in the sky, colliding to create a spectacularly wonderful reckless romance, leaving them breathless and tethered. Their souls were exposed to the chaos, bare and vulnerable. Can these two star-crossed lovers survive the madness that is life? Volume contains: need index past index 6 (County of Nassau v. City of Long Beach) need index past index 6 (Fearon v. Treanor) need index past index 6 (Geary v. Geary) need index past index 6 (Geary v. Geary) need index past index 6 (Hanfgan v. Mark) Original and inspiring, this unique volume offers readers a collection of creative writings based on Scriptures that relate to the life of Christ. Each episode takes the reader through a cycle of friendship with Jesus—from acquaintance to deeply committed friend. Along the way, the reader will be drawn closer to Jesus through the eyes of characters who literally met him and, in so doing, discovered the likability and lovability of the Master. A dark and gripping psychological thriller In the eighth Elizabeth MacPherson novel, the Southern sleuth with the Scottish ancestry acts as official investigator for her brother's Virginia law firm and tests her skills solving two sensational murders and a third crime unsolved for a century. Can you learn about God from a flower? Are there lessons on life and eternity to be gleaned from weeding or plowing? “Absolutely,” says former commercial flower grower Jean Coleman. From planting seeds to composting manure and eggshells, I Met Him In My Overalls provides powerful images of the Gospel, revealing lessons for life. While growing flowers for market, Jean saw parables emerge from the soil, stems, and blooms such as: • Flower seeds, like her, spend time in darkness before sprouting into the light • Weeds can crowd flowers and rob nutrients from the soil, like life's busyness can deplete the soul • Buds, branches, and leaves often need to be snipped, just as extraneous preoccupations in life need to be pruned • The adversary we face in life is as real as the beetles that devoured her zinnias Jean shares, with intimate transparency, revelations from an accident that abruptly ended her career as a commercial gardener. She unzips her soul, passionately revealing regrettable childhood perceptions that found their resolve in the poignant garden insights. Tending her flowers with a silent but powerful audience of One became the process of finding inner peace and a place of sacred security in a deceived world. It was an inaudible, yet convincingly distinct voice that commanded her to bequeath the lessons she learned. Upon the birth of her first grandchild, she commenced the arduous task and fervently articulated her garden journey. Join Jean in a fresh look at what happens when we identify our hidden fears, doubts, or shame and add them to the compost pile with other useless toss-aways. Venture alongside her and relinquish your own sorrows to God. He supernaturally converts them to joy and offers a serenity that makes no earthly sense. See how the Master Gardener tends us, His flowers, with such amazing grace. By trusting Him to transform your mess into something of great value, you'll find He's made rich compost from your scraps. It can get nasty but, oh, the thrill of a plentiful garden! Allowing God to till your soul field will prepare it for a harvest of peace, freedom, and love. After reading this book, you will see the ordinary through extraordinary lenses and your perception of life itself will change. Your purpose and circumstances will have a new hue.
